Useful, accessible, customizable, award winning, and freely available, Ubuntu is the most popular Linux variant on the planet. Ubuntu Live is being launched to provide a meeting place for Ubuntu users, contributors, and partners, demonstrating how Ubuntu can make a critical difference to enterprises and projects of every size.

Ubuntu Live's wide-ranging program will give participants all the knowledge they need to explore and set in motion the powerful features in Ubuntu and related applications. Expert-led tutorials, big-picture plenary gatherings, focused sessions, and a lively "hallway track" bring the worldwide Ubuntu community together under one roof. Engage with the largest Ubuntu gathering yet at the first Ubuntu Live.

Estimated attendance: 600+

Audience Profile: IT professionals, open source programmers and developers, system administrators, government and business leaders, educators, community leaders and enterprise users.

One day Exhibit Hall: July 23, 2007

The Ubuntu Live Conference will focus on:

- Providing an interactive, in-depth, and comprehensive educational experience for all participants
- Examining the current state of Ubuntu and related technologies as well as a provide a framework for thinking of open source's future and its standing in the greater technical community
- Growing the active community of Ubuntu users
- Creating an opportunity to connect face to face with other Ubuntu users
- Encouraging the use and adoption of Ubuntu by more individuals, companies, organizations, and projects, giving attendees a place to "kick the tires"
- Helping managers decide to switch to Ubuntu and developers implement that transition
- Offering a well-edited, coherent conference program that thoroughly addresses and helps to resolve the issues faced by those in the trenches
- Providing an open-minded meeting ground for hackers, developers, IT managers, and sponsors
- Gathering input and feedback from the community
- Assembling an Exhibit Hall filled with hardware and software businesses showcasing open source products and services

Co-presented by Canonical Ltd. and O'Reilly Media, Inc.
